Librarian's Report

Carltondale Penn = April 17th 1899

To the Officers and Members of the Board Young Mens Library Association

I beg to submit the following figures showing the movement of Books in the Library for the year 1898. By comparison you will note a considerable falling off from the circulation of the preceding year which we account for, partly, from the fact that during the year more than 200 volumes have been withdrawn from circulation on account of being worn out. Partly also from the fact that many patrons of the library, having read all the readable numbers in the collection, have ceased to be patrons. During four months
